The records of a graded school should furnish the following additional items: average cost per capita for supervision; for instruction; for incidentals; total cost per capita. School Management, li. GOVERNMENT. 114. The qualities needed by a good disciplinarian may be included under the terms Firmness and Good Nature: Suayiter In Modo, Fortiter In Re: A hand of steel in a velvet glove. These qualities are rarely found in equipoise. Keen sympathies and abounding charity often encourage lax government; while firmness is sometimes the exponent of a harsh, unfeeling nature. Firm discipline is the easier and the more merciful; weak governments are proverbially cruel. 115. The disciplinarian should be clothed with ample powers: Possunt, Quia Fosse Videntur. It is the certainty, rather than the severity of punishment, that...
