This book is logically arranged in 27 chapters and embraces the consolidated school law, the university law, the decisions of courts and of the State Superintendent on important educational questions. It is the only complete work on school law published. It was written especially to meet the wants of school officers and teachers, and treats clearly and comprehensively the questions which they must meet daily in their work. It also contains many historical sketches on the development of our educational system. Dr. William J. Milne, President Sbite Normal College, says: No book has ever come to my notice that compares at all with it in value for its purposes It covers the entire field fully and clearly. I have already consulted it several times for information of importance regarding schools, and in every instance I have found a full, clear, and satisfactory answer to the questions I had in mind. Hon. 1 A. S. Drapfr, former State Superintendent of Public Instruction, says: I have examined your book on New York school law with very great interest. It covers the subject very comprehensively and so as to make it easily understood. Miss Kathryn I. Hewitt, Teacher of Kingston Training Class, says: I am so pleased with the copy that I purchased at Thousand Island Park this summer, that I have asked to have them put...
