Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Cost of Living: Joint Hearings Before the Committees on Agriculture and Forestry, Congress of the United States, Sixty-Sixth Congress, Second Session, on Cost of Living, Wednesday, January 28, 1920 The committees this day met in joint session, at the hearing room of the House committee, at 10 o'clock a.m., Hon. Gilbert N. Haugen (chairman of the House committee) presiding. Chairman Haugen. The committee will come to order. We have with us this morning members of the Committee on Agriculture and Forestry of the Senate. The committees have met in joint session in order to hear a number of gentlemen who desire to present their views on certain legislation, more especially, I believe, legislation bearing upon the cost of living. This being a joint meeting of the Senate and House committees I will request Senator Gronna to preside over the meeting. Representative Rainby. Mr. Chairman, just for a moment, the cause of the Chicago delegation waiting on this committee was occasioned by a visit that Congressman Juul and myself made while in Chicago, being invited over before the city council and we accepted the invitation. The Committee on Health at that time had under discussion the question of the high cost of living, one that has aggravated not only the city of Chicago but our great country. They suggested that at a later date they might desire to come on to Washington and lay before this committee some information and data they had gathered. We signified our willingness to arrange everything for them, and I now take occasion on behalf of Congressman Juul and myself to thank the Chairman and the members of this committee...
