Based on a true story. Joey Hanser is a very handsome Labrador Retriever who has endless amounts of energy and curiosity. He loves to run and run, and he also needs to explore outside his boundaries. His creative escapologies win him admiration but also land him in trouble. The trouble more than doubles when his human mom wakes up one morning and finds him gone. In Dogs Don't Look Both Ways, author Jane Hanser presents an adventure-filled coming-of-age story about a dog and his family that regales us with Joey's endearing story-telling while it keeps us enthralled. When reading a book about animals there is always that slight apprehension that This is not going to end well! As a dog and cat lover I have read books in the past and have had to buy in boxes of tissues and chocolate to get to the end. I am delighted to say that those extreme measures...
