When, the path of my time closing behind me and the day of retribution approaching, I hear Thy voice, O Lord! how, overwhelmed with shame, shall I lift up my face? how stand in Thy presence and render an account unto Thee? I, who have so greatly transgressed, acted with duplicity, sinned against God and man, and neglected mine own salvation: I, who have wasted my strength and mine intellect on vanity, and built me a frail habitation upon sand, and heaped up evil deeds which now stand between Thee and me as a wall of separation: I, who have omitted so many occasions to do good, and have wasted precious time in idleness; carelessly disposed of Thy great bounties and misapplied what Thou hast confided to my care. In my youth, I stumbled in a mist of sensuous deception, and in old age I bound myself in the fetters of apathy and ease. I have murmured against Thy teachings and preferred to walk after the dictates of mine own heart. Thy precepts seldom animated me, and I delighted to walk in the paths of pleasure. Only the fleeting moment and the appetite of my senses swayed me, and I forgot the approaching end. Must not then the blush of shame suffuse my countenance? Would that I might flee from Thy presence. But there is no escape from before Thee. For a just God art Thou, but also a gracious God; strict in...
