

Ooga-booga

By Seidel, Frederick.

Faber & Faber. 1 Paperback(s), 2006. soft. Book Condition: New. (Finalist for the National Book Critics Circle Award) "She loves the hippos bathing in the perspiring water / Her curls are African lions exploding from a thicket," writes Frederick Seidel in this 2006 collection. Unvarnished and acerbic in such poems as "Dick and Fred" and "The Bush Administration," the Pulitzer Prizenominated author of Going Fast is also capable of vivid lyricism and wordplay in "The Italian Girl," "A Red Flower," and "E-Mail from an Owl." Here too are Seidel's homages to such literary forbears as Giacomo Casanova, Fernando Pessoa, and Rainer Maria Rilke, and an inventive, revisionist view of The King and I. 101.

This book can be well worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It is written in simple words and phrases and not confusing. It's been printed in an exceptionally simple way in fact it is merely right after I finished reading through this pdf by which basically changed me, modified the way I think.
