Frazer, of Pennsylvania, being loudly called for, came forward and addressed the assembled Democracy as follows: Fellow Democrats! In coming forward at this important crisis, to respond to the call of the great and glorious Democracy of my country, I am animated by a just sense of your appreciation of my physical and intellectual qualities, as well as the consistent and luminous course have always pursued in the ranks of a party of which I am, and have been for many years, one of the chosen champions. (Vociferous applause.) When I look around me, my fellow Democrats, and behold the patriotism and valor that animate your bosoms on this occasion - and when I think of the distinguished part the citizens of your beautiful city have heretofore taken against the combined forces of enemies without, and traitors within - and when I look back upon the battles of Yorktown, North Point and Quebec, where the Red Coats sought to enslave us, I feel a sensation of pride coursing through every vein when I think that here, in this city of monuments, were found the bravest of the brave, always ready to defend the glorious stars and stripes at the imminent peril of their lives, for the purpose of transmitting to posterity, our children and our children's children, the glorious principle of Democracy, for which you and I, and all of us, are now so manfully contending! (Deafening applause.)...
