Online gambling businesses cannot see the cus-tomer to do onsite age verification. Furthermore, the residents verification requirements set forth in the bill may not be sufficient to ensure that the bettor is, in fact, physically located in the same State as the gambling business when he makes his wager. The Department believes that Internet gambling should remain illegal. We are concerned about Internet gambling because of the potential for gambling by minors and compulsive gambling, the po-tential for fraud and money laundering and the potential for in-volvement by organized crime. And to cite one example from this area, in January, 2005, the U. S. Attorneys Office in New Yorks Southern District of New York indicted 17 defendants in an 88-count indictment for running an il-legal gambling business that included both telephone and Internet...
