Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Studying the end times has often been relegated to the domain of intellectuals and weirdos. Some immerse themselves in it in bizarre ways; others avoid it altogether. But what does the Bible have to say? In LOVING HIS APPEARING, Glenn Power shows that the true end times message is, in fact, a central part of the Christian faith that magnifies the glory of Jesus. The same God that came to earth to die for our sins in a frail human body two thousand years ago is coming back in all of His resurrected power with the armies of heaven behind Him. This incredible event known as the Second Coming is an important part of our future, and we are called to follow the example of the early apostles and eagerly desire it in our day. But to LOVE THE APPEARING OF JESUS means more than just looking forward to it--it means preparing for it. In this introduction to the end times, Power gives basic understanding into what the Scriptures say about the last generation and how it is relevant for our lives. The coming days will be joyful as the Spirit is poured out in an unprecedented measure, but they will also be terrible as evil men shake off restraint and reach new levels of sin and wickedness. Light and darkness will clash like no other time in history. The times will be severe, but God has promised to raise up a holy and powerful church that truly walks in the love that Jesus modeled. Whether you see the final hours of this time period or not, you too are called to be an overcomer and a light...
